PBBM vows to bring quality healthcare to Filipinos

MANILA – President Ferdinand R. Marcos Jr. on Monday vowed that the government would ramp up efforts to bring quality healthcare to Filipinos.

Marcos assured that his administration is “determined” to bring quality healthcare services by establishing primary healthcare facilities and specialty centers nationwide.

“I will be reporting to the nation on the progress that we have made in establishing and opening new healthcare centers around the country but that is a product of our relentless push for universal health care, and we will not stop until every Filipino can say they have good access to quality health care,” Marcos said in his speech during the inspection of the Clark Multi-Specialty Medical Center (CMSMC) in Clark, Pampanga.

The CMSMC, which will cater to those who have heart, kidney, cancer, and pediatric ailments, is a fulfillment of one of the President’s promises during his inaugural State of the Nation Address.

Marcos said it is an important component of the administration’s health facility enhancement program (HFEP).

The HFEP, he said, aims to widen the access to quality healthcare services, especially to those from underserved communities.

“I cannot forget, and the reason that healthcare has been such an important part of this administration, not only because of the experience that we have had in the pandemic in the last two to three years, but also with the guiding understanding and idea that any person, no matter how

House official: RTVM to direct PBBM’s 2nd SONA

MANILA – The state-run Radio Television Malacañang (RTVM) will be directing President Ferdinand Marcos Jr.’s second State of the Nation Address (SONA) on July 24, a House official said recently.

House Secretary General Reginald Velasco said the information came from the Office of the President (OP) and the Presidential Communication Office (PCO).

“The RTVM will take care of it... All the events where the President is the main guest or keynote speaker sila ang nagko-cover (they cover it), so they know what to do already. So ‘yun ‘yung info na nakuha namin (that’s the information that we received),” Velasco told reporters in an interview after the final inter-agency coordination meeting to discuss SONA preparations.

The Presidential Broadcast Staff-RTVM (PBS-RTVM) is mandated to provide audio and video documentation of the President’s official functions and activities, coverage and broadcast production of events of national significance, and special celebrations involving the President.

Velasco earlier announced that Presidential Adviser for Creative Communications Paul Soriano will direct this year’s SONA.

Velasco said the Batasang Pambansa Complex will be placed on full lockdown on Thursday as authorities prepare for the upcoming event.

Access to the premises is limited to authorized personnel.

“All the preparations have been done, physical arrangements, security. We are confident that by Friday everything will be ready,” he said.

The House official earlier said that the coronavirus disease 2019 (Covid-19) antigen test requirement for vaccinated guests and attendees of the SONA PREPARATIONS. Officials of the House of Representatives, Office of the President, and the Senate trace the route that President Ferdinand Marcos Jr. will take on the day of the State of the Nation Address (SONA) on July 24, 2023. successful they are in whatever field they have been, cannot enjoy that success if they do not also enjoy good health and that is why it is a fundamental part of the services that this government will bring to our people," he said.

Marcos said the government intends to establish more rural healthcare units, barangay centers, and "botika de barangays" (community pharmacies) to ensure that fundamental healthcare is readily available to Filipinos.

"It is not a privilege to have healthcare, it is a right and that is how we will approach this problem and that is how we will continue to make our healthcare system better for all Filipinos in whatever capacity that we are able to," Marcos said.

Transform PH healthcare

In a separate statement, the Department of Health (DOH) said the CMSMC is a "pioneering catalyst for transformative change" in establishing specialized medical centers nationwide.

"Equipped with cutting-edge facilities that rival the world's best, CMSMC aims to provide top-notch medical care to its patients," the agency said.

"It represents a significant step forward in the Philippines' healthcare system, promising improved accessibility, advanced medical services, and a brighter future for the nation's health."

The facility is a result of collaboration between the DOH, Philippine Amusement and Gaming Corporation, the Clark Development Corporation, Pampanga local government units, and in partnership with the private sector like the Bloomberry Cultural Foundation, Inc.

The collaboration, which embodies a whole-of-government approach, ensures access to high-quality health services in Central Luzon and neighboring regions.

Meanwhile, Agnes Devanadera, president and chief executive officer of Clark Development Corporation, said the CMSMC will also boost government efforts to promote the country as a medical tourism destination.

"It will introduce a fresh perspective to our country's healthcare sector by attracting more visitors from diverse regions, both within the Philippines and outside the country. With this, we enhance our standing as a premier destination for exceptional medical services at par with renowned healthcare destinations, hopefully like Singapore," she said in her opening remarks during the event.

Aside from boosting medical tourism, Devanadera said the medical center will serve as a beacon of hope and healing to the people with its modern facilities, a testament to the Marcos administration's strong commitment to improving the nation's healthcare services.

"With remarkable foresight and unwavering dedication, the government has demonstrated a steadfast commitment to advancing our healthcare industry," Devanadera said.

Sa gitna ng tumataas na presyo ng mga bilihan ay hinimok ni Jimenez ang mga Calambeño na magtanim sa kani-kanilang mga bakuran upang magkaroon ng karagdagang magkukunan ng pagkain.

DSWD chief orders reassessment of 'non-poor' 4Ps members

MANILA – Department of Social Welfare (DSWD) Secretary Rex Gatchalian on Tuesday ordered the reassessment of Pantawid Pamilyang Pilipino Program (4Ps) beneficiaries to improve the program's implementation.

Gatchalian specifically directed that the reassessment be focused on beneficiaries who were tagged as "non-poor" by Listahan 3, the standardized targeting system used by the program.

The DSWD, the Secretary said, will use the Social Welfare and Development Indicator (SWDI) tool to assess and monitor the level of living conditions of the 4Ps households.

This indicator tool, he said is being used by the DSWD as a case management tool to determine the progress of the households, by measuring the level of their well-being in terms of economic sufficiency and social adequacy.

Beneficiaries who will be assessed as "self-sufficient" will be subjected to the 4Ps graduation process and will officially exit the program through Pugay-Tagumpay, Gatchalian pointed out.

Based on the set of indicators in terms of economic sufficiency and social adequacy, households are categorized under three levels -- Level 1, survival; Level 2, subsistence;

The Provincial Government of Cavite's medical mission team brought hope and healing to the residents of Brgy. Bucana Malaki recently. Led by the health professionals of the Office of the Provincial Health Officer, the team worked tirelessly, providing medical check-ups, diagnoses, and treatments to individuals of all ages who suffer from minor ailments to chronic conditions.

Beyond medical consultations, the team also focused on health education, empowering the community with preventive measures, healthy lifestyle choices, and the importance of regular check-ups. Prescription medicines were also dispensed for free after diagnoses. By sharing the knowledge and resources, the activity aimed to create a sustainable impact that would extend far beyond the mission itself.--- OPIO

"Actually ang nauuna (the initial ones would be for) is OFWs and student driver's permit that mature into non-pro or professional license," he said. "I've seen the [Banner Plasticard Inc.] factory here in Pasig and they showed me that they can do 15,000 to 30,000 copies every-day," Villacorta said.

Driver's license holders can now access the electronic copies of their licenses through the LTMS portal.

"Napa-aga 'yung launch because the IRR [implementing rules and regulations] takes 15 days to take effect. But we just want to assure the public that things are getting back to normal and we have an additional form that is available, the virtual ID," he said.

The OFWs may present the virtual ID as proof of identification, he added.

"Pwede rin ipakita 'yung (They can show the) e-license so we would have a memo to all enforcers that that should be accepted," he said.

Early in June, the LTO reported a backlog of about 690,000 for the issuance of driver's licenses, with many LTO offices temporarily issuing paper licenses in place of plastic driver's licenses. (PNA) and Level 3, self-sufficient.

The result of the tool aids the program in identifying the interventions needed by the family in order to achieve the so-called self-sufficiency.

While SWDI is being administered, the DSWD secretary encouraged the concerned 4Ps beneficiaries to continue complying with the conditions of the program "not just for the cash grants but for the benefit of their children and family as well."

"The conditions include sending and keeping their school-aged children in school, regular and preventive check-ups for children aged 5 years and below, pre and post-natal care for mothers, and attendance to the monthly Family Development Sessions, among others," he stressed.

The secretary assured the graduating 4Ps households of the Department's continued support, as well as assistance from their respective local government units (LGUs), which shall provide other interventions and services after graduation so they could sustain their level of well-being. (PNA)

4Ps still vital to gov't efforts to end poverty - PBBM

MANILA – President Ferdinand R. Marcos Jr. on Tuesday stressed the importance of the “Pantawid Pamilyang Pilipino Program” (4Ps) to address the needs of poor households in the country.

Marcos issued the statement in an interview in Tondo, Manila, when asked if he would order the eventual termination of the 4Ps following the pilot implementation of the “Walang Gutom 2027: Food Stamp Program” at the Don Bosco Youth Center Tondo – Technical Vocational Education and Training Center.

“Sana. Ibig sabihin kasi kapag kaya na natin itigil iyan, sasabihin natin, ibig sabihin wala nang nangangailangan. Maganda talaga kung maabot natin ‘yun (I hope so. If we stop that, that means no one no longer need assistance. It’s good if we are able to reach that),” he said during the launch of the food stamp program.

“Pero kahit papaano, kung minsan tinatamaan halimbawa ng bagyo, tinatamaan ng peste, tinatamaan ng kung anuano, eh kailangan pa rin tulungan. ‘Yung 4Ps eh pantawid ‘yun eh (However, we still need to help those who will be affected by typhoon, pests, and other disasters. That’s what 4Ps is all about),” he added.

Marcos said the 4Ps will be terminated only if all beneficiaries already have jobs and can provide for the needs of their families.

The 4Ps, implemented by the Department of Social Welfare and Development (DSWD), is a national poverty reduction strategy and a human capital investment program that provides conditional cash transfer to qualified household beneficiaries.

It likewise provides social protection, social assistance, social development, and other complementary support services in partnership with concerned agen-

HUNGER-REDUCTION SCHEME. President Ferdinand R. cies, local government, and other stakeholders towards improving the health, nutrition, education, and socioeconomic aspects of life.

Before the media interview, Marcos led the pilot implementation of the food stamp program, one of the DSWD’s new priority programs to reduce the incidence of involuntary hunger experienced by low-income households through monetary-based assistance in the form of an Electronic Benefits Transfer (EBT) card loaded with food credits. Ending hunger, malnutrition

Marcos said combating hunger and malnutrition is one of his administration’s priorities.

“It is of course always the dream of any government, of any leader that we are able to do something about hunger around our countries because that is the most important, the most insidious influence of our people that gets in the way of the development of each individual and thus the entire society,” he said.

“To be able to provide the kind of nutrition that will make our children, that will make our people healthy and productive in their daily lives, we have an electronic transfer card and it is a system that we will use. It is not something that we are just starting now... The DSWD will go around and show you how to use this card and how to avail of the benefits that come through this card,” Marcos added.

The President also thanked the DSWD, Asian Development Bank (ADB), and other partners of the government for the successful launch of the food stamp program.

Marcos said ending hunger is the “dream of this administration.”

“That is what we are hoping to achieve in this administration, that by the end of 2028, we can say that we have done everything to reduce hunger and poverty in our country and to be able to ensure that we can provide a good, healthy and productive life for our people,” he said.

A total of 3,000 low-income families identified through the DSWD’s Listahanan (List) 3 will be the pilot beneficiaries of the program.

The priority beneficiaries include the poorest households prone to food insecurity, as well as pregnant and lactating women, and households with children aged two

Solon: PhilHealth’s transfer to OP seen to improve accountability

MANILA – A party-list lawmaker on Monday backed the proposal to transfer the supervision of the Philippine Health Insurance Corp. (PhilHealth) from the Department of Health (DOH) to the Office of the President (OP) as it would improve accountability and processes of the state health insurer.

BHW (Barangay Health Worker) Party-list Rep. Angelica Natasha Co said the proposed transfer may also lead to faster claims processing and reimbursements of all accredited hospitals and clinics that will stave off financial distress or collapse.

“May the transfer also result in new packages for senior citizens, persons with disabilities, persons with special needs, and athletes of all ages,” Co said.

Co said the OP could conduct forensic financial audits to uncover the corruption and collusion schemes in the PhilHealth systems and field operations.

“We have yet to see criminal prosecutions and convictions resulting from the many investigations and exposes. The corrupt get away with their nefarious deeds. Conspirators and accessories are unscathed, while billions of public funds and private funds are siphoned away in their organized scams,” she said.

The DOH and PhilHealth have created a joint technical working group to evaluate the proposal.

The Department of Justice (DOJ), meanwhile, said it has found no legal impediment to the proposed transfer, which is a “legitimate exercise of the President’s power of control” over the Executive department and the offices under it.

“The 1987 Constitution expressly confers to the President the power of control over all executive departments, bureaus, and offices. Corollary, the Constitution’s express grant of the power of control in the President justifies an executive action to carry out reorganization measures under a broad authority of law,” the DOJ legal opinion stated. (PNA) years and below.

The Food Stamp Program will be piloted in identified areas in Metro Manila, Cagayan Valley Region, Bicol Region, Caraga Region, and the Bangsamoro Autonomous Region in Muslim Mindanao.

The beneficiaries of the program will receive an EBT card with food credits amounting to PHP3,000 per month for six months (July to December).

The food credits can be used to purchase nutrition-rich food items from DSWD-accredited partner retailers.

To ensure that the family beneficiaries will be able to consume different kinds of healthy food, PHP1,500 or 50 percent of the total amount of food credits will be allocated to purchase carbohydrate-rich foods such as rice and bread; PHP900 (30 percent) are for proteins such as chicken or pork; and PHP600 (20 percent) for vegetables, fruits, oil, salt, or other condiments.

The Food Stamp Program will be implemented with the help of the World Food Program (WFP) and the ADB.

Nutritious, delicious

DSWD Secretary Rex Gatchalian said the Food Stamp Program will ensure that beneficiaries will no longer sleep on empty stomachs.

“We will also make sure that what they eat is nutritious so that they have enough strength to become part of our labor economy,” he said in an interview.

Also present during the launch were Vice President Sara Z. Duterte, Department of Labor and Employment Secretary Bienvenido Laguesma, and representatives from the Department of Agriculture, Technical Education and Skills Development Authority, Philippine Statistics Authority, Department of Science and Technology – Food and Nutrition Research Institute, Department of Health, and Department of Trade and Industry.

“Our collaboration and cooperation with different government agencies is very important. They will be our partners in providing services to our beneficiaries,” Gatchalian said.

Representatives from partner-institutions, including the WFP, ADB, Australian Embassy, Japanese Embassy, New Zealand Embassy, Hungarian Embassy, United States Agency for International Development, United Nations Children’s Fund, Food and Agriculture Organization, World Bank, Japan International Cooperation Agency, International Labor Organization and the European Union Delegation to the Philippines likewise witnessed the launch.
