PBBM's Christmas wishes: Love, peace, happiness for Filipinos

MANILA – President Ferdinand R. Marcos Jr. on Wednesday expressed optimism that love and peace will prevail, as Filipinos reflect on the true meaning of Christmas.

In his message, Marcos said Christmas is a crucial part of the core beliefs of the Filipino faithful, as the occasion allows them to experience God's presence "in its nearest and most intimate form, evoking gratitude, kindness, and happiness to one and all."

He said the celebration and significance of the birth of Jesus Christ transcend the constraints of religion, extending its invitation of joy and thanksgiving to everyone "no matter their background".

"As Filipinos, take this highly anticipated chance to come home, reconnect with loved ones, and relish the blessings of the past year, I call on everyone to reflect on what is truly important: Living a life of meaning and purpose," Marcos said.

"By doing so, may the bustle and spirit of Christmas make love and peace abound in every household and instill in us a deeper appreciation of the strength that comes from our relationship with Christ and each other," he added.

Marcos enjoined everyone to help him realize his vision for

DENR seeks inclusion of environmental compliance in 'Seal of Good Local Governance' criteria

CALAMBA CITY, Laguna (PIA) — The Department of Environment and Natural Resources (DENR) in Calabarzon is pushing to incorporate environmental compliance as a critical criterion for local government units that undergo assessment for the prestigious Seal of Good Local Governance (SGLG) overseen by the Department of the Interior and Local Government (DILG).

During the Kapihan sa DENR CALABARZON, Regional Executive Director Nilo Tamoria emphasized the significance of the initiative in driving LGUs toward better ecological management and accountability.

"The integration of environmental compliance into the SGLG reflects our collective commitment to sustainable governance. We are working closely with the DILG to ensure that LGUs adopt practices that protect and nurture the environment while fostering community development," said Tamoria.

SGLG is a prestigious award and recognition program established to acknowledge the exemplary performance of LGUs in the country.

Serving as a benchmark for good governance, the SGLG is a progressive assessment system that encourages LGUs to excel in their responsibilities in providing exemplary service delivery, transparent governance, and sustainable development, while promoting local autonomy and sustainable development.

DENR believes that the inclusion of environmental compliance and stricter implementation of laws in the SGLG framework is a groundbreaking move that not only acknowledges LGUs' efforts in (Turn to p. 2)

Araneta-Marcos and their sons, Senior House Deputy Majority Leader and Ilocos Norte 1st District Rep. Sandro, Joseph Simon and William Vincent, encouraged the public to visit tourist destinations in the country during the holiday season.

Rep. Marcos called on Filipinos to spend the holidays in places with festive Christmas decorations, while Simon urged them to visit the beautiful churches in the country.

Vincent, on the other hand, stressed the importance of spending Christmas with family and friends.

"Ang Paskong Pilipino ang pinakamasayang Pasko sa buong mundo. Kaya naman, sa kabilang anuman pagsubok o pinag-dadaanan, hindi ma-i-aalis sa atin ang magdiwang, simple man ang pamamaraan (Filipino Christmas is the happiest Christmas in the world. That's why, despite any trials or experiences, we can't stop celebrating, even if our way of celebrating is simple)," Marcos said.

"Hindi naman kailangang magarbo, dahil nasaan mang sulok ng bansa, anuman ang ating kalagayan, ang Pasko sa Pilipino ay pagmamahalan at pagbibigay. Ang Pasko sa Pilipino ay pamilya (It doesn't have to be fancy, because no matter where in the country we are, regardless of our circumstances, Christmas in the Philippines is about love and giving. ceremony held at Alonte Sports Arena from December 21 to December 22, some 18,666 senior citizens received an additional P3,000 financial support from the city government, covering the period July to December 2024.

According to Mayor Arman Dimaguila, the Local Social Pension program will help senior citizens in their vital needs during the Holiday season.

"This is something that other LGUs can't do; not everyone is able to provide local social pension. For us, senior citizens, as well as PWDs and solo parents are special," Dimaguila said.

The pension program, authored by Vice Mayor Gel Alonte, was enacted during the Covid-19 pandemic to ensure that every senior citizen in Biñan would benefit from the city's thriving economy.

This year, the program has a total allocation of almost P120 million and included programs for social pension and healthcare for the elderly.

Dimaguila then stressed the city government's efficient fiscal responsibility in allocating more funds for the most vital services of the city such as the education and health system.

"If we distributed this in one week [Pamaskong Bayong], it will be consumed immediately, so I think

DSWD's Walang Gutom Kitchen feeds over 4K individuals

MANILA – More than 4,000 individuals experiencing involuntary hunger have been fed by the Walang Gutom Kitchen of the Department of Social Welfare and Development (DSWD) in Pasay City since its launch on Dec. 16.

"We were able to feed a total of 4,452 individuals experiencing involuntary hunger from its launching date up to December 24," DSWD spokesperson Assistant Secretary Irene Dumla said as quoted in a news release on Thursday.

Dumla said the agency was able to assist families in street situations (FISS) and those experiencing involuntary hunger through donations from hotels, restaurants, and other establishments.

"We are very grateful for the food donations from the different establishments. We would like to reiterate that the food we are offering is not discarded food or 'paggag' (left-over) as some people call it," she said.

Dumla asserted that the food served in the Walang Gutom Kitchen is always fresh, delicious, and healthy, as she thanked individuals who volunteered to serve in the Pasay City soup kitchen.

governance but also reiterate their role in fostering sustainable development.

"We strongly believe that good local governance is not only about adhering to the Local Government Code.

Good governance includes taking care of the environment. When an LGU is not capable of fulfilling its environmental responsibilities, it cannot truly claim to be practicing good governance," Tamoria stressed.

He added: "Good governance is holistic—it is about addressing the needs of the present while securing the future. Without environmental responsibility, true progress is impossible."

As the DENR and DILG finalize the inclusion of this new criterion, local leaders are urged to align their programs with national environmental goals, reinforcing their role in building disaster-resilient communities with efficient handling of sustainable resources. (AM/PIA-4A)

the dole-out program needs to be balanced with other programs. This distribution for senior citizens, this is a form of recognition for them." Dimaguila added.

The city mayor assured the public that the local social pension is separate from the national government's pension program under Republic Act 11982 or the Expanded Centenarians Act, and will continue even when the city administration changes. (CO/PIA-4A)

Escudero calls for unity, reflects on Pinoy resilience this Christmas

MANILA – Senate President Francis "Chiz" Escudero extended on Wednesday his Christmas and New Year greetings to Filipinos, calling to celebrate the birth of Jesus Christ with gratitude, compassion, and hope.

"On this special day, I join our fellow countrymen and the entire Christendom in celebrating the birth of our Lord Jesus Christ. This joyous occasion reminds us of the boundless love and hope that the birth of our Lord brings to humanity," Escudero said in his message.

Reflecting on the challenges of 2024, including a series of natural calamities that struck the Philippines, Escudero commended the resilience and faith of the Filipino people.

"We give thanks to God, for it is only through His grace and mercy that we were able to overcome these challenges. Throughout it all, the resilience and deep faith of the Filipino people shone brightly," he said.

Escudero also urged the public to extend kindness to those in need during the festive season.

"As we gather with our loved ones, let us not forget our less fortunate countrymen and extend our hands to help them. This is my prayer: food on every table, a roof over our heads, and clothes on our backs," he added.

Looking ahead to 2025, Escudero called for unity and faith in pursuing national progress.

"Together, we can overcome any obstacle and achieve greater heights as a nation, with the Lord as our guide and protector," he said.

'Agents of hope'

Manila Archbishop Jose Cardinal Advincula called on the Catholic faithful to become "agents of hope" and "heralds of joy" in their communities.

"According to the ancient fathers of the Church, He is God who 'abbreviated' Himself, who made Himself so small that we may no longer be afraid of Him. This gives us hope. This gives us strength. We are not alone in our journey," he said in his Christmas message.

"May the Holy Year of 2025 make us agents of hope and heralds of joy in our communities. I pray for all of you and your families that you may not allow despair and resignation to take away your hope. Jesus, born among us, is the reason for our hope. Without Jesus, there is no hope," he added.

Advincula encouraged the people not to let despair take away their hope.

"The circumstances of the first Christmas were very much like ours today. Our world today is no different. It was filled with lamentations and longings for freedom and redemption," he said.

"It was dark. It was night. In this darkness, the light has shone, and hope was born. The angel said to the shepherds, "Do not be afraid; for behold, I proclaim to you good news of great joy that will be for all the people," he added. (Ferdinand Patinio/PNA)

Over 200 road traffic injuries recorded Dec. 22-27

MANILA – The Department of Health (DOH) has recorded 284 cases of road traffic injuries from Dec. 22 to 6 a.m. of Dec 27.

This is nine percent higher compared to the road traffic injuries logged last year.

Most (249) of the road traffic incidents during the holiday season involved motorists not wearing safety accessories such as helmets and seatbelts — 196 were motorcycle accidents and 53 consumed alcohol before hitting the road.

The DOH advised motorists not to travel when tired or drunk as this state can affect a person's coordination, concentration and quick response to emergency situations.

"Ensure that you have 7 to 8 hours of sleep before traveling. Ugaliing magsuot ng helmet para sa mga nagmo-motorsiklo at seatbelt para sa mga nagmamaneho at mga pasahero ng sasakyang (Make it a habit to wear a helmet when riding a motorcycle and a seatbelt when driving or riding a car)," the DOH said.

"Sundin ang itinakdang speed limit at mga road signs upang matiyak ang ligtas at maayos na biyahe at upang maiwasan ang aksidente (Observe the set speed limit and road signs to ensure safe travel and avoid accidents)," it added. (PNA)

Remulla: Enforce law on use of firecrackers

MANILA – Department of the Interior and Local Government (DILG) Secretary Jonvic Remulla on Friday urged local government units (LGUs) to enforce rules and regulations on firecrackers and other pyrotechnics in their respective jurisdiction to prevent firecracker-related injuries.

In a memorandum, Remulla called on LGUs to issue ordinances and other regulations banning or discouraging individuals or households from using firecrackers as prescribed by Executive Order No. 28 series of 2017.

He also said LGUs must restrict the use of firecrackers only to community fireworks displays that have secured necessary permits and conduct information campaigns on the dangers of prohibited fireworks.

Remulla instructed the Bureau of Fire Protection (BFP) to ensure that fire exhibition safe

The Department of Health on Friday reported 32 more fireworks-related injuries in various regions, bringing the overall tally to 101 from Dec. 22 to 6 a.m. of Dec. 27.

Meanwhile, the DILG likewise encouraged LGUs to enforce RA 9003 or the Ecological Solid Waste Management Act of 2000 to maintain cleanliness and orderliness in public places during the holiday season. (PR)

DA: Kadiwa ng Pangulo Rice-for-All program pulls down prices

MANILA – Market rice retailers have started lowering prices following the successful implementation of the Kadiwa ng Pangulo Rice-for-All program across Metro Manila, the Department of Agriculture (DA) said Friday.

The Rice-for-All program is an initiative launched by the DA, local dealers, importers and wholesalers.

The program ensures the smooth distribution of affordable rice at PHP40 per kilo with a 25-kilogram limit per person.

The DA and other stakeholders said the program reduced the staple's price, the Presidential News Desk news release stated.

Rice being sold by the Kadiwa and its retailers is cheaper by PHP3 to PHP5 compared with those by market retailers.

The DA reported that market retailers are currently reducing their prices to keep up with the lower prices offered by rolling stores.

Perpetual eyes title defense in NCAA Season 100 Beach Volley

MANILA – University of Perpetual Help head coach Sammy Acaylar remains optimistic about a back-to-back win in the NCAA Season 100 men's beach volleyball tournament, set to begin in February 2025.

The Altas secured their second straight crown in Season 99 after Louie Ramirez and Jefferson Marapoc defeated College of Saint Benilde's Saint Marlowe Jamisol and Ar-Jay Ramos, 21-19, 21-13.

Ramirez, however, will be no longer around when the competition begins in February, having graduated by then.

Stepping up to fill his shoes is Klint Mateo, joining veterans Marapoc and reliever Kobe Tabuga.

Marapoc, a three-year team member, and Mateo, with two seasons of experience, will lead Perpetual's campaign.

"We will do everything to retain the title," Acaylar said Thursday, noting the team's rigorous preparations are set to start at La Aplaya Beach Resort in Naic, Cavite.

"Louie is a big loss, but we believe in working hard and preparing thoroughly for our opponents. I have full confidence in my players," added Acaylar, who has guided the Altas to championships in Seasons 88, 92, and 98.

Letran's Lady Knights to defend title

In women's beach volleyball, Letran's Lady

Knights are also gearing up to defend their title.

Gia Marcel Maquiling and Lara Mae Silva swept last season with an undefeated record, culminating in a 21-16, 21-16 finals win over San Beda University.

San Sebastian College holds the record for most women's titles at seven, including a remarkable four-peat from 2013 to 2016.

Meanwhile, Emilio Aguinaldo College's men's team will aim for a fifth straight title.

Last season, Alijhan Apdian and Dwayne Iverson Alin-Alin rallied past Lyceum of the Philippines' duo, 21-17, 16-21, 15-10, to secure victory. (PNA)
