Growing public support inspires PBBM to work harder

Manila – President Ferdinand R. Marcos Jr. on Wednesday welcomed reports of growing public support for him and his administration, saying it inspires him to work even harder for the country's betterment.

This, after the results of the Social Weather Stations' (SWS) June 25 to 29 survey showed an increase in public satisfaction with Marcos' performance in the second quarter of 2025.

While he maintained that his work performance should not be measured by numbers alone, Marcos expressed gratitude knowing that more Filipinos are satisfied with his efforts to give them a more comfortable life.

"I have no idea. I don't look so much at [survey results]. Of course, it's so nice to know. I did not know

Calabarzon LGUs lauded for intensified pre-emptive evacuations amid Typhoon Opong

CALAMBA CITY, Laguna (PIA) — The Regional Disaster Risk Reduction and Management Council (RDRRMC) Calabarzon commended local government units (LGUs) in the region for intensifying pre-emptive evacuations ahead of the onslaught of Typhoon Opong on Friday, Sept. 26.

Office of Civil Defense (OCD) Regional Director and RDRRMC Chairperson Carlos Eduardo Alvarez III emphasized that although Calabarzon was not directly hit by the recent typhoon, the pre-emptive evacuations have been crucial in ensuring public safety, especially for residents in flood- and landslide-prone areas.

Alvarez also thanked local disaster officers and responders for their efforts in safeguarding communities amid the threat of Severe Tropical Storm Opong in the region on Friday, Sept. 26.

Minor eruption normally happens in Taal Volcano - Phivolcs

MANILA – Minor eruption normally happens in Taal Volcano, the head of the Philippine Institute of Volcanology and Seismology (Phivolcs) said on Wednesday.

"Taal erupts every now and then. More than 90 phreatic and phreatomagmatic eruptions were recorded since April last year," Phivolcs Director Teresito Bacolcol said in a television interview.

His clarification came after a minor eruption was recorded in Taal at 2:02 a.m. Wednesday.

The latest eruption, which lasted for about 13 minutes, produced a 2,500 meter-high plume that drifted about that, but now that you tell me, of course I'm glad that it's that way," he said in an interview in Masbate City.

"I guess it's just we just have to keep working. 'Yun lang (That's all)," Marcos added.

Marcos emphasized the importance of delivering real progress and providing immediate services to the people.

He said government officials should remain focused on working for the country instead of engaging in politics for personal gain.

"Whatever is happening, kahit na anong nangyayari, kahit may bagyo, kahit may skandalo, kahit may gulo, ang taumbayan ay umaasa sa pamahalaan na tuloy ang serbisyo, tuloy ang trabaho ng pamahalaan (no matter what happens – whether there's a typhoon, a scandal, or unrest – the people expect the government to continue its service, to continue its work) at every level, at the national level, at the local level," Marcos said.

Around 46 percent of adult Filipinos were satisfied with Marcos' performance, while 36 percent were dissatisfied and 19 percent were undecided, yielding a net satisfaction score of "moderate" +10, according to the SWS' non-commissioned survey released on Tuesday.

The poll results saw a significant 20-point improvement from the "poor" -10 net score logged in April 2025, reversing the downward trend observed over the past three quarters. (PNA) northwest.

Bacolcol said minor phreatomagmatic eruptions were also recorded last Sept. 11 and July 17.

"Taal Volcano erupts almost every month," Bacolcol added.

He reminded the public to refrain from entering the Taal Volcano Island or permanent danger zone.

Taal Volcano stays at Alert Level 1. Sudden steam or phreatic eruptions, volcanic earthquakes, thin ashfall and emission of poisonous gases are possible.

Bacolcol said raising

Taal Volcano's alert level is unlikely at this time because there are other parameters being considered.

For instance, he said there was no earthquake recorded in Taal Volcano for the past 24 hours.

Bacolcol, meanwhile, also clarified that the eruption has no connection with the magnitude 6.9 offshore Cebu earthquake late Tuesday.

The earthquake was triggered by offshore active fault northeast of Cebu Island, according to Phivolcs. (PNA)

"We, in the Office of Civil Defense and the Regional Disaster Risk Reduction and Management Council Calabarzon, extend our gratitude to all our local DRRM officers, staff, responders, and stakeholders for the invaluable services rendered to ensure the safety of our communities considering the threat of TC Opong in the region. I convey our sincerest appreciation to all our Provincial DRRMC chairpersons for heeding our call for massive pre-emptive evacuations," Alvarez said.

The RDRRMC Calabarzon reported that 64 local government units had preemptively evacuated 12,201 families, composed of 41,723 individuals, before the onslaught of Typhoon Opong.

It added that the RDRRMC is intensifying pre-emptive evacuation particularly in areas identified by the Mines and VOLCS).

Ayon kay Paolo Reniva, resident volcanologist ng PHIVOLCS Taal Observatory, walang naitalang ashfall sa paligid ng Taal Caldera at mga lake-shore communities. Ipinaliwanag niya na ang phreatomagmatic eruption ay nagaganap kapag nagkaroon ng interaksyon ang magma at tubig sa ilalim ng lupa, na nagdudulot ng pagsabog.

Batay sa ulat ng PHIVOLCS, umabot sa 2,500 metro ang taas ng ibinugang usok ng bulkan na tinangay ng hangin patungong hilagang-kanluran. Nananatili itong nasa Alert Level 1, na nangangahulugang abnormal ang kondisyon ngunit walang nakikitang banta ng malakas na pagsabog.

Muling nagpaalala ang PHIVOLCS na mahigpit na ipinagbabawal ang pagpasok sa Taal Volcano Island, lalo na sa Main Crater at Daang Kastila Fissures, gayundin ang pagpapalipad ng saksyang panghimpapawid malapit sa tuktok ng bulkan dahil sa panganib ng biglaang pagbuga ng abo at nakalalason gas.

Tiniyak ng ahensya na patuloy ang mahigpit na pagmamanman sa aktibidad ng bulkan upang makapagbigay ng agarang abiso kung kinakailangan. (KA PIA4A)

Prior to the typhoon's landfall, the RDRRMC directed LGUs across the region to enforce preparedness measures, including the immediate evacuation of residents in high-risk areas.

"Mas gusto natin na before it happens—bago magkaroon ng pagguho ng lupa, pagbaha, at iba pang epekto ng bagyo tulad ng malakas na hangin at ulan—nasa ligtas na lugar na ang ating mga kababayan," OCD Calabarzon Spokesperson Reyan Derrick Marquez told the Philippine Information Agency.

He stressed that these efforts are aimed at minimizing casualties and protecting communities from hazards.

"Yun po ang ating pinagpursigihan, para po maging ligtas at huwag po tayong maging casualty na dulot ng pagbaha at landslide."

Marquez also called on the public to cooperate fully with local authorities during emergencies.

"Makipagtulungan po tayo sa ating mga LGUs. Kapag sinabi nilang mag-evacuate, sumunod po tayo. Huwag po nating hintayin na dumating ang disgrasya dahil mahihirapan din magpadala ng search and rescue. Ayaw din nating malagay sa panganib ang ating mga responders," he said.

The RDRRMC Calabarzon reported ₱25,568,751.00 worth of damages to agriculture, including rice, corn, and farm structures, affecting a total of 281 farmers across the region.

'Dagyaw sa CALABARZON' sheds light on adolescent pregnancy

LUCBAN, Quezon (PIA) – With the CALABARZON (Cavite, Laguna, Batangas, Rizal, Quezon) region reporting the highest number of live births among girls aged 10 to 19, this year's 'Dagyaw sa CALABARZON' open governance forum called for a collective action to address growing concerns on adolescent pregnancy.

The 2022 National Demographic and Health Survey of the Philippine Statistics Authority (PSA) reported a gradual decline in adolescent births, from 57 per 1,000 women aged 15 to 19 years in 2013 to 25 per 1,000 in 2022.

However, the Commission on Population and Development (CPD) stressed that the decline should not be celebrated, pointing instead to a more pressing concern—girls giving birth before even reaching the age of 15.

Jasmine Osias, Information Officer II, noted that limited access to reliable sexual education among the youth remains a key issue in the region.

"There have been many studies on early pregnancies, the most direct factor being that [they] did not use protection during sexual intercourse. Many hesitate to ask their parents and professional adults [about sex]. This tells us that family communication and access to accurate information remain a challenge."

Dr. Alicia Manuel, Supervising Administrative Officer of the Department of the Interior and Local Government (DILG)'s Support for Local Governance Program, stressed the need to provide a space for youth participation in policymaking to address teenage and adolescent pregnancy.

"We are strengthening laws, expanding comprehensive sexuality education, and building informed trauma care for victims. But the truth is: no policy will work if it does not resonate with you—the youth."

Crafted by the CPD and the Department of Economy, Planning, and Development (DepDev—formerly NEDA), Osias cited the Philippine Population and Development Plan of Action (PDP-POA) 2023-2028 as the country's blueprint for addressing persistent population issues, including early pregnancies.

"Our goal is to optimize demographic opportunities and address persistent population issues and challenges to reap demographic dividend and accel-

US gov't shuts down amid impasse between Trump, Democrats

WASHINGTON – The wheels of government ground to a halt early Wednesday as negotiations between US President Donald Trump and congressional Democrats to fund the government failed to reach an agreement.

Negotiators had until midnight Tuesday to reach an understanding, but the deadline came and went with major differences persisting.

Democrats have sought to include health care reforms as part of any budget bill, including a reversal of part of Trump's signature tax law that established cuts to Medicaid funding, as well as an extension of subsidies under the US' quasi-universal health care law, known as the Affordable Care Act.

Republicans are instead demanding a "clean" continuing resolution devoid of any changes to existing spending.

The House of Representatives passed a bill Sept. 19. It would have funded the government at existing levels through Nov. 21, but it stalled in the Senate, where Republicans lack the number of seats to clear a 60-vote procedural hurdle to approve legislation.

Trump already laid claim to the longest shutdown in US history when funding lapsed in 2018 and continued for 35 days into 2019.

While a shutdown does not automatically result in a full-blown economic crisis, it creates major disruptions for many aspects of American life.

Many federal employees will be furloughed, or forced to work without pay, while others will be placed on mandatory leave until a new budget is approved. Each federal agency has its own shutdown plan, determining which government employees are essential.

Unlike past shutdowns, Trump has threatened to make additional layoffs if the government shutters.

Services like border security, hospital care, air traffic control, law enforcement and power grid maintenance were considered essential in previous shutdowns, while benefits like Social Security, Medicare and Medicaid continued.

Immigration services, for instance, are not affected by a government shutdown as they are funded by independent fees.

Some public services could suffer from a government shutdown. Environmental and food inspections may be affected, while factory inspections may be temporarily suspended.

National parks may close, and air travel delays and cancellations could occur due to air traffic controllers and security personnel working without pay.

The Bureau of Labor Statistics' emergency plan states that economic data will not be published during a government shutdown, which means non-farm payrolls, a closely watched flow of data expected to be published Friday, may not be released.

The US has had 19 shutdowns lasting three days or less since 1981, while some prolonged shutdowns seriously affected federal government operations. (Anadolu)

DOH pushes for responsible pet ownership as rabies cases in PH hit 260

MANILA – Rabies cases in the Philippines have climbed to 260 from January to September 20 this year, the Department of Health (DOH) said Monday.

In a public advisory, the DOH reported that 95 percent of the infections were linked to animals that were unvaccinated or had unknown vaccination status.

With the rising number of cases, the DOH urged the public to take preventive measures through responsible pet ownership.

Annual vaccination of pets is the most effective protection against rabies for both humans and animals. The Anti-Rabies Act of 2007 makes vaccination mandatory for pet owners to help eliminate rabies nationwide.

The first rabies vaccine is given to puppies around three months old, followed by yearly boosters for all adult pets.

The DOH also reminded pet owners to register their dogs and cats with their barangay, keep pets from roaming unsupervised, and immediately seek treatment at an Animal Bite Treatment Center if bitten or scratched.

The agency issued the reminder as part of the observance of World Rabies Day 2025, highlighting the importance of prevention to save lives. (PNA)

Senate commends Alas Pilipinas for historic performance in FIVB worlds

MANILA – The Senate on Wednesday adopted a resolution filed by Senate Minority Leader Alan Peter Cayetano congratulating Alas Pilipinas for its historic 19th-place finish at the 2025 FIVB Men's World Championship.

Cayetano, who sponsored Proposed Senate Resolution No. 143, said the team's breakthrough run "brought immense pride and honor" to the country and proved that Filipino athletes can excel when given the right opportunities.

"Sports brings Filipinos together. This team not only made us proud during the SEA Games, but they also made sure they will pleasantly surprise us," Cayetano said during his sponsorship speech.

He described sports as a "God-given activity" that promotes health and well-being, fosters unity even in the midst of political divides, and elevates the Philippines' global image through international success.

The Senate resolution said the achievement was made even more significant by the Philippines' role as the tournament's sole host.

All 24 senators supported and adopted the resolution, with Majority Floor Leader Juan Miguel "Migz" Zubiri and Senators Francis "Kiko" Pangilinan, Joel Villanueva and Erwin Tulfo making their manifestations congratulating the national team.

were Philippine National Volleyball Federation (PNVF) president Ramon "Tats" Suzara and secretary-general Donaldo Caringal, and members of Alas Pilipinas led by head coach Angiolino Frigoni, deputy coach Ogie Mamon and team captain Bryan Bagunas.

The resolution cited standouts led by captain Bryan Bagunas, who was third among the tournament's top scorers, and Marck Espejo, who finished fourth among receivers.

Cayetano credited the coaching staff led by Frigoni and the reforms implemented by the PNVF under Suzara, which he said opened doors to overseas tournaments and strengthened training programs for national players.

Cayetano, co-chair of the Local Organizing Committee and Chairman Emeritus of the PNVF, said honoring Alas Pilipinas is also about sustaining momentum for long-term sports development.

"Honoring Filipino athletes serves a public purpose because their achievements inspire national pride, set standards for sports programs, and justify sustained investment in facilities, training, and athlete support nationwide," he said.

Cayetano said the success gave the Philippines more confidence to host the FIVB Women's Volleyball Championship in 2029.

"Because of their performance and because of the successful hosting, two years from now, iyon namang Women's Volleyball Championship will be held in the Philippines and this time around we have much more time to prepare," he said. (PNA) ernment of Cavite (PGC), through the Office of the Provincial Human Resource Management Officer (OPHRMO), spearheaded a Tree Planting and Tree Growing Activity on September 19, 2025, at the Taal Volcano Protected Landscape in Tagaytay City.

The event, which gathered sixty (60) employees from various PGC offices, was part of the Employees' Month Celebration under the Civil Service Commission's nationwide observance of "Linggo ng Malasakit sa Kalikasan." The initiative highlighted the importance of sustainable environmental protection and natural resource management. A total of 150 seedlings were planted during the activity, reinforcing the provincial government's commitment to conservation and ecological balance.

Anchored on the anniversary theme, "Bawat Kawani, Lingkod Bayani: Puso, Dangal, at Galing para sa Bayan," the activity emphasized the role of government workers not only as public servants but also as stewards of the environment.

Ms. Maria Fe Mojica-Satsatin, Head of the OPHRMO, expressed her gratitude to the employees for their active participation and support, noting that their collective efforts reflect the true spirit of public service and solidarity for a greener Cavite.

Civil Service Month is observed every September by virtue of Presidential Proclamation No. 1050, s. 1997, commemorating the establishment of the Philippine civil service and honoring the invaluable contributions of government employees across the nation.--- OPIO
